(A) Commencement of Action. Contested cases are commenced on the filing of any document by which filing the director is required to hold a hearing or, by order of the director, to set a hearing, other than an order for a hearing on a proposed regulation.

(B) Other Rules to Apply. To the extent that the conduct of a hearing is not established by Chapter 536, RSMo or this regulation the procedure before the division shall conform to procedures established by the Missouri Rules Civil Procedure.

(C) Transcript of Proceeding. A court reporter selected by the director shall transcribe all hearings in contested cases. Parties before the division shall pay a pro rata share of the cost of two (2) transcripts of the proceedings for the division. On entry of a final order in the matter, the losing parties shall reimburse the successful parties for the cost so advanced.

(D) Briefs. Unless otherwise ordered by the director, the petitioner may file a brief within forty-five (45) days of the receipt of the transcript, the respondent may file a brief within thirty (30) days of receipt of the petitioner's brief and the petitioner may file a reply brief within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the respondent's brief. The initial brief filed by each party shall contain proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law designated as such.

(E) Copies of Correspondence. For every writing filed with the division on any matter related to a contested case, each party shall provide one (1) copy for the division and sufficient other copies to enable the division to provide a copy to every other party to the contested case. The director may waive this requirement, if in his/her discretion, the parties are so numerous that this requirement would be unduly onerous.

(2) Prehearing Procedures.

A special hearing or briefs on the motion may be required by the director.

(D) Prehearing Conference. At the request of any party, or on his/her own motion, the director may order a prehearing conference for any of the following purposes; provided however, that no party shall be required to disclose the nature of its evidence, the names of its witnesses or its theory in the case at that conference:
